

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION.

Permit No. 1923-9.

Fidalgo Island Packing Company.
Herendeen Bay.

December 14, 1922.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the Fidalgo Island Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at Herendeen Bay, within the Port Moller District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate two purse-seine boats between Port Moller and Cape Seniavin (and may share equally with the Phoenix Packing Company and the Everett Packing Company in the proceeds of an additional purse-seine boat to be operated jointly by the three companies between Port Moller and Cape Seniavin.)

third boat

2. That in view of this limitation on apparatus no case limit is set on the pack of this cannery for the season of 1923.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce,

HERBERT HOOVER

Secretary of Commerce.
